BACKGROUND INFORMATION & NOTES

Caucasian, Brown hair, Blue eyes, looks like he hasn't exercised a day in his life.

John grew up in a Medium sized Town in Illinois to a middle class household. He was an only child and spent most of his time messing around with friends, Seemingly being able to talk himself out of any confrontation. He also excelled in early schooling.

In his later education he was able to obtain a bachelors degree in accounting. he went to a relatively decent university.

He put his Bachelors degree to use after graduating, but quickly found it boring. Instead, he become a traveling stand up comedian, living on a shoestring. Eventually his gamble paid off, and he had become something of a local celebrity.

John is a kleptomaniac and he knows it. it always gave him some sort of satisfaction to steal. The only time he e for money was his early career as a comedian. The only thing that motivates him after the world went to shit is that someday it will back to normal.
